

MAN HURT HERE MAY BE WANTED FOR WIFE DESERTION IT IS SAID

L. VANDEWALL, WHO WAS IN
MC CARTY AUTO ACCIDENT,
MAY BE WALTER NASS.

LEFT CHILD WIFE AT FREEPORT

Warrant Issued for Apprehension —Wife and Babe Taken to Milwaukee.

(Special to The Telegraph.)
Freeport, Ill., July 17.—According to information given out today by the sheriff's office, L. Vandewall, one of the men who was injured when G. G. McCarty's automobile turned over near Dixon Tuesday afternoon, is wanted in Freeport on a charge of wife desertion. The official stated that the man was married under the name of Walter Nass and that it was under this name that he came to Freeport with his wife after residing at Rockford for some time.

But, according to Deputy Sheriff Charles Crowe, Nass, or Vandewall, fearing arrest from an outside source, and believing that his child bride would be well cared for by those with whom he left her, under the cover of darkness he deserted his wife at a Freeport hospital, with a kiss and a promise to the faithful little woman whom he married last December that he would write and call her up by telephone at every opportunity.

Wife's Condition Serious.
Worrying because her husband was forced to leave her and being alone in the city, with but few personal acquaintances and without close friends, the little woman gave birth to a child and as a result became delirious and for a matter of days hovered between life and death, a nurse being constantly at her side, her hand being held a greater part of the time for comfort and the soothing effect it had upon the patient. She is now convalescent, but her former vitality has not returned and she is not the same cheery little woman that she was when taken to the hospital. Her babe is a lusty little youngster and has every chance to live.

BUSINESS MEN AND CLERKS TO PLAY BALL

CONTEST WILL BE FEATURE OF
BIG PICNIC AT LOWELL PARK
THURSDAY.

BAND WILL PLAY ALL DAY

Will Keep Things Enlivened—Complete Program Will Soon Be Ready.

A baseball game between two teams of business men and their clerks on each side of First street, the center of the street being the dividing line. Players of the City league will be barred from participating in the game, which will be played at 10 o'clock in the morning, and the following committees have been named to organize the two teams and perfect the arrangements for the game:

North Side—J. B. Lennon, John Vaile, Freeman Ankeney.
South Side—Clarence Resek, Charles T. Self, Webster Poole.

Band Will Play.
There will be plenty of music at the picnic, too, the Dixon Marine band having been engaged to play during the entire day. The band will furnish a little music on the streets early in the morning and will keep things enlivened on the picnic grounds.

A meeting of the committee was held Thursday evening and practically every detail for the day's entertainment was completed. In fact, it is believed the complete program of the day's events can be announced tomorrow.

SAVED HER BABY; DIED FROM WOUND

MRS. FRED MEYERS, SOUTH OF PAWPAW, GAVE LIFE FOR HER BABY.

Aurora, Ill., July 17.—A young mother died a martyr in St. Charles hospital Thursday. She succumbed to injuries received several weeks ago when she dragged her 2-year-old daughter out of the path of a moving machine, only to get caught in the machine herself.

Mrs. Frederick Meyers, 33 years of age, the mother, was the wife of a farmer residing near the Lee county line, north of Earlville. Several days ago she was in the field watching her husband cut hay. He was driving a big mowing machine. When she first went into the field she had the 2-year-old baby in her arms, but set her down in the hay to play.

Sees Child in Grass.
The mother became interested in the husband's work and for a time forgot about her baby. Suddenly she saw the tall grass waving in front of the sharp knives of the mower. Then she saw her baby crawling directly in the path of the machine. With a scream the mother threw herself in front of the knives. She grabbed the baby and threw her to one side, but could not save herself.

Before the machine could be stopped Mrs. Meyers was terribly injured. Her back and limbs were terribly cut and torn.

MAY TAKE JOY RIDE WITH ANOTHER'S WIFE

GALESBURG JUDGE SAYS SUCH ACTION IS NOT AGAINST THE LAW.

(Special to The Telegraph.)
Galesburg, Ill., July 17.—Taking another man's wife joy riding fails to constitute disorderly conduct, according to a decision handed down by Justice L. F. O'Brien in a local court. Mrs. Lincoln Swigert swore out a warrant charging her husband with disorderly conduct, because he was a daily visitor at the home of Mrs. Guy Bliss and repeatedly took her out auto riding. Often times they did not get back before 11 o'clock in the evening.

The court said that evidence to the effect that he took her auto riding might do in a divorce case, but not in a disorderly conduct charge.

NEGRO FOUND GUILTY; LIFE IMPRISONMENT

ISAAC BOND TODAY CONVICTED OF SLAYING IDA LEEGSON
AT ARGO.

(Associated Press.)
Chicago, July 17.—Isaac Bond, a negro, was this morning found guilty of the murder of Miss Ida Leegson, an art student and sculptress, who was found slain and robbed on a lonely prairie near Argo, Ill., on the night of October 4th, last. The case went to the jury at 5 o'clock last evening and the verdict was returned this morning. The jury fixed the punishment at life imprisonment.

Miss Leegson was lured to the spot where she met her death through an advertisement for a mirror. Bond was identified by several persons as the man who had been seen carrying her suit case near Argo and also identified as the man who had pawned her watch.

SUPERVISOR ANDERSON DIED SUDDENLY TODAY

PASSED AWAY AT HIS HOME AT 6:30 O'CLOCK THIS MORNING.

ACUTE INDIGESTION CAUSE

Suffered Attack Late Yesterday Afternoon—Was Prominent Citizen.

The community suffered its second shock of the week this morning when the news permeated through the business section of the city that Orville B. Anderson, supervisor, ex-alderman and prominent Mason and Odd Fellow, had passed away at his home, Galena avenue and Fellows street, at about 6:30 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Anderson's sudden death was caused by heart failure, superinduced by acute indigestion, an attack of which he suffered late Thursday afternoon. Every possible medical assistance was given the sufferer, but to no avail, for death ended his sufferings at the early hour this morning.

ORVILLE B. ANDERSON

The passing of this gentleman removes one of Dixon's most influential citizens. A native of New York (he was born at Geneva, N. Y., Dec. 15, 1848), he has been a resident of Illinois for the past 57 years and during his long residence in Dixon he has always exhibited a keen interest in the good of the community. By honest energy he prospered at his carpentering trade and later he became manager of the Emerson Lumber Co., of which concern he was a stockholder.

Was Alderman.

Mr. Anderson's interest in the affairs of the city caused him to seek election to a place in the city's administrative body, and in 1887 he was elected to an aldermanship from what was then the Fourth ward of the city. He served in the council until 1891, and was again elected an alderman in 1894, serving six consecutive years at that time. His record was a silent tribute to his honesty and steadfastness of purpose. He was elected supervisor of Dixon township in April, 1913.

His Fraternal Interest.

Mr. Anderson was also a firm believer in the brotherhood of man as symbolized by the fraternal organization, and he became an especially active worker in the Masonic lodges and in the Odd Fellows. He was a member of all of the Masonic chairs of office. In the Odd Fellows fraternity he was also actively engaged, and became a trustee and a superintendent of the Odd Fellows home.

Because of the suddenness of his passing it was impossible to secure a complete obituary for publication today and this feature will be published in Saturday's paper.

Funeral Monday.

Funeral services will be held at his late home on Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, and will be in charge of Friendship lodge No. 7, A. F. & A. M., of which Mr. Anderson was a past master and secretary. The other Masonic orders and the Odd Fellows will act as escorts. Rev. Fred D. Stone will conduct the service and burial will be at Oakwood cemetery.

ASHTON STORE FRONT WRECKED BY BLAST

EXPLOSION OF FORMALDEHYDE GENERATOR CAUSED DAMAGE.

Ashton, Ill., July 17.—People who were in the business section of Ashton shortly before 10 o'clock last evening were startled by the report of an explosion which was followed instantaneously by the sound of breaking glass. The explosion took place at Friend Smith's pharmacy, where a formaldehyde generator, which had been set up in the window to kill the flies as believed to have blown up. Both of the plate glass windows in the front of the store were blown out and pieces of the glass were thrown nearly the entire way across the street. Fortunately no one was in front of the store at the time of the accident, consequently no casualties resulted.

BOILEAU FUNERAL TO BE HELD TOMORROW

LAST SERVICES FOR ACCIDENT VICTIM WILL BE HELD AT LATE HOME.

The funeral of George E. Boileau, who died Thursday morning as the result of injuries received in a fall from the roof of Judge Scott's residence, will be held at his late home 410 Boyd street, at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Rev. S. E. Fisher, pastor of the Christian church, officiating. Burial will be at Oakwood.

Held Inquest.

Coroner Stephan late Friday afternoon conducted an inquest into the manner of the unfortunate man's death, the following jury returning a verdict of accidental death due to injuries received in the fall: P. A. Lennon, S. S. Netz, A. E. Simonson, W. S. Fletcher, J. A. Whitish, Clarence Kalebach.

Obituary.

George Edgar Boileau was born at Little Rock, Ark., Jan. 10, 1885, and was married at Duluth, Minn., to Miss Ethel Lowater, eight years ago, the family moving to Dixon about three years ago. He is survived by his sorrowing wife and two daughters, Bernetta and Mildred, and also his father, Paul Boileau, who resides at Hibbing, Minn. The deceased was an energetic and likeable young man, and many friends will tender sincere condolence to the bereaved ones.

WAITING WIFE FEARS TRIP

Threats of Revolutionists Cause Mrs. Huerta Anxiety—To Go to Jamaica.

(By Associated Press.)
Huerto, Mexico, July 17.—Precoded and followed by special troop trains, loaded with picked men, ex-President Huerta left Tierra Blanca at 6 o'clock this morning for Puerto, Mex., where the Huerta and Blanquet families are on board the British cruiser Bristol awaiting his arrival.

Owing to the threats of the revolutionists of Tierra Blanca territory that Huerta will never reach the coast alive, Mrs. Huerta today expressed much concern and Mrs. Blanquet is in hysterics. It is rumored that Huerta will go to Jamaica from here, and thence will go to Havana.

LIGHTNING STRUCK SAPLING NEAR CHOR BOYS CAMP: TWO OF CAMPERS WERE BADLY STUNNED

During the severe electrical disturbance Thursday noon an exceptionally hard bolt of lightning struck near a tent at the camping ground of the St. James choir boys of Chicago, severely shocking two of the residents of the camp.

Those suffering from the crash were R. B. Murphy, one of the officials, and a young man, Alfred Swan. The two were standing in the doorway of a tent which was pitched near the river bank, which is exceptionally steep at this point. In fact the bank is so high that the

MEXICO CITY UNDER CENSOR

Another Revolution Brewing in Interests of Felix Diaz, Is Reported.

Mexico City, July 17.—Provisional President Carbajal has taken steps to turn the government to Mexico over to the constitutionalists. A committee, consisting of Jose Inez Novelo, Jesus Rueta and Enrique Manget, ex-members of the chamber of deputies chosen by President Carbajal within an hour after his selection, is now on its way to Celaya, state of Guanajuato, where it is to meet representatives of the constitutionalists to arrange for the peaceful entry of the victorious revolutionists into the capital.

It is said they go with full power to accede to every demand made upon them. If the constitutionalists decline to recognize Carbajal because he succeeded Huerta, whose government has never been recognized they are to say that Carbajal is willing to exercise police powers only, until they can install their own man. At the same time they are to point out that the present provisional president was selected by congress and not by his predecessor. It is reported on good authority that a delegation of constitutionalists have left Irapuato, north of Celaya to meet the men from the capital who have never been involved in the present controversy.

Will Recognize Carranza.

Washington, July 17.—The United States instructed John R. Sillman, American consul at Saltillo, to inform General Carranza that if he arrives at a peaceful agreement with the Carbajal government for the transfer of power at Mexico City recognition will be extended to the resultant administration.

If Carranza refuses to complete the settlement of the internal conflict by diplomatic means and insists on a forcible entry into Mexico City, recognition will be deferred until there is a legal election. American forces, according to present plans, will not be withdrawn from Vera Cruz until a government is recognized.

BOLT OF LIGHTNING KILLED FARMER SOUTHEAST OF PAWPAW THURSDAY MORN; BOLT HIT BARN

Paw Paw, Ill., July 17.—Nelson Peterson, a wealthy farmer living four miles southeast of here, was struck and instantly killed by lightning as he stood in his barn door Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. A hired man who stood beside him was badly injured and Mr. Peterson's two sons were knocked down by the shock.

The group had run to the barn to get in out of the rain and were standing in the door watching the downfall. The bolt struck the corner of the barn and followed it down until it struck Peterson. His wet clothes are believed to have attracted the bolt.

Peterson has lived in the vicinity for about three years. He is survived by a wife and a number of children. He was a man about 60 years old, a Norwegian by birth.

THREE FACTIONS IN FIGHT AT LAPAZ, MEX

CONSTITUTIONAL, FEDERAL AND ZAPATA FORCES SEEK POSSESSION OF SEAPORT.

(Associated Press.)

San Diego, Cal., July 17.—A wireless from the battleship California at Lapaz says that there was heavy fighting at Acapulco yesterday between three factions of the Mexican forces, the Constitutionalists, Federals and Zapatistas. The forces embroiled over the possession of the seaport and foreign property and shipping are reported in danger.

Admiral Howard has dispatched the cruiser Chattanooga to aid the cruiser Cleveland in protecting foreign interests at Lapaz. The Federal evacuation of Guaymas is complete, the last of the garrison embarking to the southward last night.

FRENCHMAN IS WINNER ON FOUL

Georges Carpentier Beats Gunboat Smith in London.

DECISION ANGERS AMERICANS

Blow Was Only Technically a Foul and Was Unintentional—Sudden Ending of Contest Causes Great Disappointment—Frenchman Is White Champion—Lords and Clergy Out.

London, July 17.—Georges Carpentier, the Frenchman, won the white heavyweight championship of the world from Gunboat Smith at the London stadium in the sixth round of a contest which was to have gone for twenty rounds.

Referee Corri, by a decision which infuriated every American, decided that Smith fouled his opponent by striking him when he was on his knees.

Technically, it is admitted, that Smith did hit the Frenchman, but the claim is that a fair-minded referee would have seen that the blow was entirely unintentional and unavoidable. Smith had just dropped Carpentier with a hard right uppercut. Carpentier arose to his knees and began to straighten up. Smith swung a terrific left to catch him on the jaw just as his knees were clear. Simultaneously Carpentier lost his balance and dropped to his knees again. The American could not stop his blow, which grazed the Frenchman's neck.

Foul Causes Uproar. It will never be decided whether this was a trick of the French fighter. He went back and Smith was thrown over his prostrate body by the force of his own blow. That instant a clamor arose from the Frenchman's corner. His handers were over the ropes in an instant, screaming and gesticulating to the referee, who sat outside the ring. The great crowd was in an uproar, men, women, peers and commoners, tourists and peers and commoners, tourists and sailors moving towards the ring.

Corri, who had stood up to begin counting when Carpentier fell, stood undecided, but after the Frenchman had been carried back to his corner he decided that Smith had committed a foul and awarded the fight to his opponent.

Lords and Clergy Out. Great Britain's legendary fights of the old-time bare-knuckle men were eclipsed by the unfortunate contest at the stadium.

More than 12,000 persons paid admission to see the two heavyweights fight for a title in which they had no patriotic interest. There were 800 women, well dressed and excited, in the building. 300 of them French women. There were at least fifty clergymen who made no concealment of their clerical attire and shovel hats. There were peers by the hundred, among them Lord Lansdale, who had a large party. There were members of parliament whose names are heard every day, army men, navy men, officers and enlisted, and almost to a man the crew of the U. S. S. Missouri.

Johnson Planned to Fake Fight in Paris. Moran, However, Failed in Effort to Double Cross Negro. London, July 17.—Complete publicity was given to correspondence between Black Jack Johnson and Frank Moran's backers, which shows that the battle staged between the two recently in Paris was to be framed up. On the morning of the fight, according to these documents, Johnson agreed to give Moran 40 per cent of the receipts, provided the white man "laid down." Dan McKettrick and Moran entered into the agreement, and proceeded to double-cross the negro. Moran went into the fight and put up his best battle, completely surprising the negro, who expected him to drop at any moment. After the fight Johnson demanded the return of the documents when he learned that McKettrick failed to keep up his end.

The agreement reads as follows: "June 27, 1914. 'I hereby agree to divide the receipts of my contest with Frank Moran on June 27 on the basis of 40 per cent to Moran and 60 per cent to me. Provided Frank Moran loses inside of eight rounds. After the fight he must return this receipt.'

"JACK JOHNSON"

The expose burst like a bombshell upon local sporting fans, and the bad feeling against Johnson has reached such a pitch that public sentiment demands he be driven out of Europe.

STARS HAVE GREAT PITCHING STAFF NOW

ACQUISITION OF McCUNE AND PADDOCK GIVES THEM FINE TWIRLING BUNCH.

KEENAN WILL WORK SUNDAY

"All set for Sunday's game" is the word from Managers Valle of the Brunswicks and Ned Whitebread of the Stars. Batteries, infield and outfield are filled with the best men available from the squads of both organizations. Each position has been filled with its strongest man keyed up to his best by a week of hard drilling. These two teams will present the strongest lineup that they have so far during the league season. Both are bent on winning, as this is the third of a series of three games which the two teams have so far divided. Both are bound to cop, but who will? This is the question not at all easily answered, but still one that a good many fans interested in the rivalry between the two teams are asking.

Paddock and Conlon of Sterling will not appear for the Stars Sunday, as was stated yesterday, because since that time a fine game has been arranged for the Sterling West Ends in which the boys wish to even up the financial difficulties that bunch has encountered, so this star battery will appear for Manager Phelps of Sterling rather than for Manager Whitebread. However, on following Sundays the two will play with the Stars, giving them a splendid battery and strengthening the one weak point of their organization. This will give them left as relief satcher and Keenan and McCune as extra pitchers, which makes a great staff.

In Sunday's game Keenan of Hershfield will be used by the Stars. The rest of the line-up will stand intact as stated yesterday.

The Brunswicks will pitch Lightner with Lennox in the receivership which battery needs no introduction and no further comment. The Brunswicks will use the same lineup as in last Sunday's game with the exception of Woodyatt in left garden and there are possibilities of a new face appearing at second, but Valle will say nothing concerning the stranger who will shove the heavy hitting Curran to center field. A record-breaking attendance is expected and from all indications the attendance will be exceptional.

CHRISTOPHER COURTRIGHT WAS ONE OF THE EARLIEST PIONEERS IN THIS SECTION.

HAD A ROMANTIC CAREER

Had Crossed the Entire United States in Prairie Schooners—Was Mexican War Veteran.

The Milford (Neb.) Review gives the following account of the death of Christopher Courtright, one of the earliest Dixon pioneers, who died in Nebraska in June at the age of 91 years. The story of the life of Mr. Courtright is very interesting. Mr. Courtright was a brother of the late Erastus Courtright, also of Dixon.

Christopher Courtright was born in Luzerne county, Pa., Dec. 7, 1822, departed this life June 28, 1914, aged 91 years, 6 months and 21 days. He was the son of Elisha and Sarah Courtright, being third in a family of eleven children, all of whom have preceded him to their final resting place except one sister, Mrs. Ella Mason, with whom the deceased has made his home since 1875. Mr. and Mrs. Mason were homesteaders in Mason Co. in 1866, their homestead being between Milford and Pleasant Dale, where they resided until recently, when they moved to Milford, where he deceased has spent the remainder of his declining years.

At the age of 17 he came with his parents to Dixon, Ill., where he filled the fertile prairies of the sucker state until March, 1847, when he enlisted in the Mexican war, Co. A, 16th U. S. Volunteers, serving under Generals Scott and Taylor until the close of the war.

His principal duty was help guard the pay and provision trains and fight guerrilla bands. After being mustered out, receiving an honorable discharge, he returned to his home at Dixon and followed pioneer freighting to and from Chicago, a distance of 190 miles, until 1859, there being no railroad west of Chicago.

During the summer of 1859 he with his brother, Abram Courtright, and other crossed the undeveloped plains in the prairie schooner, their destination being Pike's Peak. Upon arriving at St. Joseph, Mo., they followed the streams in a somewhat westerly direction, crossing the Platte river about where the city of North Platte stands, then to Fort Laramie, but on arriving at the present site of Denver and earning that the supposed discovery of gold at Pike's Peak proved a disappointment, they concluded to continue their journey westward by way of Fort Bridger, crossing the Rocky mountains at Southern Pass on to Sacramento, Cal.

Mr. Courtright, during his life, has crossed the entire United States by the old prairie schooner method. To those accustomed to making the same trip at the present day enjoying all the modern conveniences of the observation, pullman and dining car, it is hard for the average mind to comprehend the dangers, trials and hardships involved in such an undertaking and the time required for such a journey as most of their teams were oxen and oxen, their chief rations being buffalo and antelope meat, grouse and quail. These at times being hard to obtain, but this was considered a very small factor with which to contend when compared with the dangers from the Indians on the warpath, it being necessary each night to form a corral with their wagons in order to protect their stock from being driven off by the Indians.

In the spring of 1860 after visiting the Santa Wada mountains, he concluded to return to Dixon. Selling his team and crossing the Isthmus of Panama, he took ship for New York. Upon reaching home he farmed the old home place until 1875, when he again started west, coming to Nebraska.

Uncle Chris, as he was always called, lived a life of self sacrifice, ever ready and willing to help a friend in need. His entire life was spent without a companion to share his blessing and his trials. But he was never known to murmur or complain, like the brave soldier that he was, he was always ready and willing to bear his cross. But the all wise one who waits and watcheth the harvest, saw that the golden sheaf was ready and said, come, leaving to mourn his loss one sister, Mrs. Ella Mason of Milford, and many nieces and nephews, of whom 15 were present at the parting service, which was conducted by Rev. Wagoner of Beaver Crossing, as assisted by Rev. F. E. Pfoutz and Rev. I. Lappily of Milford, the text being Job. 5:26. The remarks were very appropriate and fitting, as the Lord saw fit to call when the wheat was in the full ear.

The funeral was from the home of C. C. Mason at 1 o'clock to the M. E.

church, where the funeral exercises were held, and interment was made at Blue Mound cemetery. A large number of people turned out in spite of the disagreeable day to pay their respects to the dead brother. The pall bearers were G. W. Brandon, Charles Trombla, Legrand Trombla, Eli Court right, Ira Courtright, Elisha Court right. The pall bearers are all cousins and nephews of the deceased.

PENN CORNERS

Penn Corners, July 17.—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bovey attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Haltzom at Woosung Thursday.

R. L. Brooks was a business caller in the village of Woosung Thursday.

The farmers have nearly completed their haying and many have begun their oats harvesting.

Mrs. Henry McPherson of Pine Creek and Mrs. Kathryn Bovey and Mabel Wunholt of Chicago were guests at the meeting of the Ladies' Aid society Wednesday.

Mrs. Maude Shelley and children were visiting at the T. N. Cunningham home Wednesday.

There is not any great improvement noticed in the case of Mrs. Daniel Miller, who has been ill for some time.

J. C. Hagerman did some punp repairing here several days ago.

Mrs. Orpha Starner and daughter were visitors Thursday with Mrs. Benjamin Wolfe.

How many men and women are suffering from aching, tired feet when the well known foot powder, Healo, would bring them great relief! Ask Rowland Bros., druggists, about it.

Mrs. Brown has won through,
 Her bread is known throughout the town.
 Her secret—ah—I'm going to tell:
 Use Zephyr Flour—you'll know it well.

Here Comes the Grocer—Don't Forget to Order

ZEPHYR FLOUR

It's the most important thing on the list. Don't let the flour box get empty. Let me tell you, Madam, there's a great difference between Zephyr Flour and ordinary flour—difference in the wheat, difference in the way it is milled. Zephyr Flour is a full gluten flour. It is made from hard wheat. It is uniform in strength and quality. Expert flour chemists analyze it every two hours as it is being ground. Your baking turns out the same way every time.

Eat More Zephyr Flour Bread
 Pies, Cakes, Biscuit, Cookies.

Your money goes further. Your family will be the better for it. Good bakers use Zephyr Flour.

be remembered as Miss Olive Altman.

With Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Curran entertained Mrs. J. A. Schaff and son of St. Paul, Flo Curran and Miss Margaret Allen at 6 o'clock dinner at their home on Peoria avenue.

W. R. C. and G. A. R. Picnic.
All the members of the W. R. C. and the G. A. R. and their families are greatly enjoying a picnic this afternoon at the Assembly Park.
They are the guests of Mrs. Harriet McKinstry at her cottage there for the afternoon and evening. All are having a very enjoyable time.

Returned Home.

Miss Beulah Bartlett, who has been visiting in this city with relatives, returned to her home in Chicago yesterday, accompanied by Mr.
Philip Raymond, who will visit
there for a short time.

Sterling and Miss Ann Thomas of Chicago, who is spending her vacation in Sterling came to Dixon Wednesday afternoon and greatly enjoyed a picnic supper at Assembly park.

To Sing at Franklin Grove.

The Methodist choir of 30 voices with the orchestra will go to Franklin Grove Camp Meeting on Sunday and there give a sacred concert. The 1:15 train will make a special stop at the camp grounds for the choir and orchestra.

With Dinner.

Mrs. C. D. Cooley of this city will entertain with a 6 o'clock dinner this evening in honor of her niece, Miss Ethel Townsend, of Charles City, Ia., who is visiting at her home.

The rooms will be prettily decorated in white carnations and ferns and these decorations will predominate on the dining table, a huge bowl of them forming the centerpiece.

The evening will be spent in having a social time, a number of musical selections will be given and Miss Townsend will favor the company with several readings. Miss Townsend is an eloquentist of no small ability, she having graduated from the Columbia College of Chicago in that line and the guests are anticipating a very delightful even-

Tea Postponed.

The scrambled tea that was to be gational church will have services of special interest to everybody at 6:30 next Sunday evening. Music, speaking and singing. Subject under discussion, "Faithful in Little Things." Everybody invited and welcome.

Is Home.

Mrs. S. M. Watson, who has been visiting in Macatawa, Mich., has returned to her home in this city.

Dancing Party.

The weekly dancing party which affords so much pleasure to young and old alike, will be held at Illini hall in Grand Detour this evening.
The pretty hall with ice cream pavillion in connection makes an ideal place for summer pleasure seekers and no doubt the usual large crowd will be in attendance this evening.

Leake's Drug Co. has on hand for the relief of those suffering from aching, tired feet, that well known powder, Healo. None better.

Walton Domestic Science Club.

The fifth meeting of the Domestic Science club was held Tuesday evening in the basement of St. Mary's church.

The meeting was called to order by the president, followed by a talk on the different choice of meat, given by Mrs. C. C. Ackert. Then followed a vocal duet, "Star of the East," by the Misses Hermina and Emma Hecker of Amboy, which was greatly enjoyed and they graciously responded with an encore.
A talk on canning vegetables and preparing them for canning was given by Mrs. E. A. Brooks and was very interesting. Miss Nellie Cahill favored with a reading, after which a dainty luncheon of lemonade, wafers and cookies were enjoyed. The ladies voted the meeting a great success and adjourned. The next meeting will be held Aug. 11 and the club is making plans for a picnic and request all the members to be present.

To Long Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Moss leave for a pleasure trip of a month's duration on Long Island, New York.

Attended Dancing Party.

Miss Helen Clark was the guest of Miss Kathryn Smith of DeKalb last evening, when she attended a dancing party at the Country club given in her honor by Miss Smith.

At Assembly Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Burke of Chicago and daughter Margaret, and Mrs. Mary Flanagan and children have closed their homes and are camping at Assembly Park, where the children are enjoying the beach greatly.

Return Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Heidenreich have returned to their home in Portland, Ore., after the burial of their little son, which took place in this city.

At Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Moss were dinner guests last evening at the
B. F. Downing home on E. McKinley.

At Sickness Home.

Mrs. Gracia Welch and daughter Carol will arrive this evening to visit with the mother and grandmother, Mrs. E. C. Sickels, of this city. Mrs. Welch and daughter are from Milwaukee, but have been visiting in St. Paul for a number of weeks with the former's brother, Lewis Sickels. They plan to spend the summer here.

LADIES ATTENTION

I wish to notify all the ladies who have been enquiring and writing for my shipment of the new 12oz 1/2

LAD ACCUSED OF POISONING

Entire Family Suffers Sickness Twice
From Affected Potatoes.

Genoa, Ill., July 17.—Sudden illness of a farmer, Allen Storm, his wife and five children was diagnosed as the result of eating potatoes which had been poisoned. It was found that a similar illness two weeks ago had not been shared by a boy, a ward of Storm, who was unaffected.

Physicians and Storm questioned the lad, and it was reported that he confessed to having poisoned the tubers.

Golfers to Have Tango Contest.

Champaign, Ill., July 17.—A tango contest will be a feature of the entertainment for those attending the fourteenth annual tournament of the Central Illinois Golf club association to be held here. Each club of the association will select a couple to enter the contest.

LA SALLE WITNESSES FLEE

Federal Grand Jury Unable to Get Testimony on Chicago Bank.

Chicago, July 17.—It is learned that witnesses wanted by the federal grand jury which is investigating the affairs of the La Salle Street bank while it was a national concern have fled from the city.

One man, it was said, has gone to Los Angeles, but federal agents there as well as in other cities will be sent copies of the subpoenas and will try to serve them.

ENGINEERS BALK B STRIKE IMPENDS

WESTERN RAILROADS FACE CRIT-ICAL SITUATION—MAY AP-PEAL TO GOVERNMENT.

The engineers and firemen of the 98 western railroads now involved in a wage controversy, including the C.
& N. W. and Illinois Central lines, last night refused to accept federal arbitration as suggested by the committee of railway managers.

What the next step will be is a matter of conjecture, the employees refusing to give out a detailed copy of their strike vote by railroads as requested by the managers and having absolutely refused to retract from the original demands of May 18.

Both managers and union officials have stated that it will be useless to continue conferences and the exchange of letters in the hope of effecting a settlement of arbitration by the engineers is expected to force the roads to appeal to Washington for mediation. In that case the federal board will take up the matter directly with the employees.

Situation Critical.

The most enthusiastic railway officials regard the situation as extremely critical. And although it is said that the employees of the Northwestern were not in favor of a strike they will be forced to go out if the employees of the other roads so decide.

It is expected the brotherhood of engineers and firemen will serve notice on some of the railway managers tomorrow that a strike will begin at some certain hour, probably within two days of the date of the strike notice.

Mediation or arbitration cannot be forced upon the employees and therefore it is no way to avoid a strike if the men decide in favor of a walkout, it is said. The strike would affect 148,000 miles of railroad, including all lines west of Lake Michigan and the Illinois Central. All lines west of Ft. William, Canada, excepting the Grand Trunk Pacific, would also be affected.
Coming when record crops are just ready to begin to move, such a strike would be nothing less than a national calamity.

DIGESTION WAITS ON FLAVOR

Of the Highest Importance as an Adjunct to the Nourishing Value of Food.

If it were not for flavor we should not digest our food properly. Epicureanism in eating is the handmaid of good health. Flavor has been called the soul of food. The viands that are most agreeable to our sense of taste, those we enjoy most, are those we are most likely to digest well and from which we are most likely to derive the maximum of nourishment.

A whole book was devoted to this subject by Henry T. Finck of New York. He called it "Food and Flavor."
In a review of it the Scientific American says: "The psychic factor of desire must precede ingestion, or results will be unpropitious. To each cent spent for nutriment we add five more for flavor. Flavor, in short, has an appetizing value, a health value, a commercial value. The evolution of a discriminating appetite and the education of the cook must go hand in hand. But your glutton is never an epicure. Rational mastication must accompany the highest enjoyment of food, and in this enjoyment lie perfect assimilation and health. It is flavor that stimulates the flow of the digestive juices; it is the digestive juices that prepare the food for the extraction of nutriment."

True Worth of Man.

Proverbs says, "by the blessing of the upright the city is exalted." A good, true, righteous man is a benefit to a city. His own personality may be worth thousands to a community. It is not the man who is rich that adds to the welfare of a city. He may own banks, factories, stores and palatial homes, and yet prove a dead weight to a town. The second part of the verse we quoted, tells this. It says,
"but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked." It is what a man is for true worth, for integrity, for nobility of purpose that constitutes his citizenship, for good or bad. Where a man's ideals are loose, his character depraved, he does not render a real service to a community whatever his wealth may be. "Water seeks its own level," and the level of a community is its citizenship, and to that level the community may go. Factories, railways, architecture, schoolhouses, churches, will not of themselves exalt
a city. It takes virtue, integrity, diligence to do that.—Ohio State Journal.

Lucky Choice.

"My husband is a most inveterate reader," exclaimed Mrs. Knox with a slight tone of ennui. "He reads until dawn every morning. Why, last night I found him asleep with his nose in 'V. V.'s Eyes!'"
"Perhaps," commented her husband's bookish friend, "you should be thankful you did not find him with his nose in 'The Inside of the Cup!'"
—Kansas City Star.

MANY DIXONITES ATTENDED FUNERAL

PROBABLY 200 WENT FROM THIS CITY TO PAY LAST TRIBUTE TO WM. B. McMAHAN.

Between 150 and 200 Dixon people are believed to have gone to Pawpaw today to attend the funeral of the late Circuit Clerk William B. McMahan, which was held there at 3 o'clock this afternoon. A large number of friends of the beloved official went to Sterling on the interurban car and took the Burlington to Pawpaw, while more went via Rochelle and Roxbury. All morning automobile loads of Elks and other friends of the deceased left the city, it being estimated that fully forty cars made the trip. The number of people who made the trip to Pawpaw is evidence of the high esteem in which "Mac" was held.

REPORT FACES BIG STRIKE

Freeport, July 17.—The probability that the Bricklayers', Stonemasons' and Plasterers' unions will be involved in the local strike of the Carpenters' and Joiners' union was expressed today by Bert Childs, an organizer from the International Union of Brick layers at Indianapolis. There is an international agreement between these two unions—which is said to have recently been entered into—by which the members of the crafts are not to work on non-union jobs in which both are interested. The Freeport carpenters have been on a strike since early in the spring, but the bricklayers have continued at work on jobs whether fair or unfair.

On account of rebuilding the Dollar Saver was compelled to vacate his old stand. There being no ground floor rooms available in the city he secured rooms above Vaile & O'Mal-ley's clothing store. One room is as large as some storerooms and this room he will utilize for salesroom,
and store unseasonable goods in the remaining rooms. The large sales-room is located right at the head of the stairway and you will have no trouble finding it. The closing out sale will continue with prices so low you will make big money by climbing one flight of stairs. I have contracts out for New York goods which will arrive during the sale and they will be included in the low prices. Remember I can make very low prices on account of reduced expenses. The Dollar Saver, C. A. Holwick, Prop.

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the Othine Prescription.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee

SUNDAY'S CHORISTER WINS.

(Associated Press.)

Chicago, July 17.—Judge Honore today set aside the $20,000 verdict given Miss George Jay in her breach of promise suit against Homer Rodeheaver, choirmaster for Evangelist "Billy" Sunday, on the grounds that the verdict was out of all proportion with the financial situation of the parties.

STRIKING MINERS IN FIGHT.

Fort Smith, Ark., July 17.—It is reported that fighting is in progress between union and non-union miners of the Mammoth Vein Coal Co. at Fairie Creek. Two mines are said to have been dynamited and are on fire. The strike has been in progress for several months.

RAIL ALLOWED MRS. CARMAN.

Minneapolis, N. Y., July 17.—Mrs.
Florence Conklin Carman was arraigned in the Supreme court today on an indictment charging her with manslaughter in the first degree by having caused the death of Mrs.
Louise Bailey. She pleaded "not guilty" and her bail was fixed at $20,000.

JULY 17 1914

THE VOCATIONAL SCHOOL.

A startling charge and one that should attract attention of every education board in the United States was made at a convention in Philadelphia the other day where were gathered advocates of vocational schools and of the extensive introduction of vocational teaching in the public schools.

The charge referred to, briefly stated, is that in the City of Philadelphia there are 18,000 children who left school before they finished the sixth grade and who are unfit for any trade; that there are 90,000 such children in New York and 3,000,000 such in the United States. That is to say, there are 3,000,000 children in the United States with some slight knowledge of the three R's, but without any training whatever in any useful art of handicraft.

If this statement is accepted as being true, it is not necessary to argue further as to the missing link in our popular educational system. The teaching of reading, writing and arithmetic cannot be dispensed with but an ability to interpret printed language or the knowing how to figure the cost of seven pounds of sugar at five and one-half cents per pound will not greatly aid the one possessing such knowledge in being of successful account in a strenuously practical world. Primary, secondary and even the higher academic education of the colleges is but a basis.

Upon the basis there must be constructed the sort of education that fits for practical service, and no education should be regarded as finished that turns the child or young man out without some knowledge of an art, profession, trade or business by which to earn a livelihood. That is the theory of the vocation school propagandist.—Baltimore American.

DIXON NEEDS ONE.

A Lungmotor representative has been in Dixon trying to sell the city one of his life-saving machines. He is coming back again, and we hope and pray that he will persuade the city commissioners to buy at least one of them. Dixon is about the only city in this state that pretends to be any kind of a real city that has not got one of these life-restoring devices of one make or another. There have been several occasions in recent years when one of them would probably have saved a life. They cost about $135 we are informed. Is this the price of a life? And if so it is too much to pay? What Dixon man would not give many times that sum for one, if he had it, if his boy or girl were pulled out of the river and had not been in too long to be brought back to life?

The Telegraph has no interest in the city's buying any particular make of machine. We want the best, that is all, and wish the city would delegate a commission of local physicians to investigate the various devices and select the one most suited.

These machines are capable of bringing back to life persons that have been apparently killed by shocks of electricity, overcome by gas or drowned, and are also a very valuable addition to a hospital.

THE BUZZARDS ARE SCRAPPING.

There is a Mister Zapata, with a selected gang of expert butchers, skulking around in the vicinity of Mexico City. The gentleman and his friends have been waiting for some time to capture and loot the capital. With Huerta gone and Carranza and Villa arguing about who is to be boss, Zapata may hop in and get the bacon before they know it.

Anyway, whoever gets control of the city, the citizens are likely to wish it had been the other fellow.

OUT OF A JOB.

Huerta has tied up his belongings, together with a few million dollars that weren't strictly his belongings, perhaps, in a red bandanna, we suppose, and hit the long and dusty trail. As long as the money lasts he can forget his troubles, when he gets to the bright lights of the Parisian cafes and boulevards. He is better off now and so is Mexico, so who should worry?

If you want good, healthful exercise, get in the habit of taking a dip in the river at the Assembly bathing beach several afternoons or evenings in a week. There is nothing that can beat it.

"Mac" has been laid to rest. We don't think he had an enemy in the world, and that is saying a great deal for a man who has been in public office a big share of his life.

Watchful waiting is still the order of the day at the White House and, really, we can't see just how any other policy could have resulted any better up to date.

OSE CUTE CLAIMS IN COURT

The Grocer

BY WALT MASON

The grocer sells the things we eat — all sorts of things, in reason; the pickle sour and honey sweet, and garden sass in season. He sends things where his patron dwells, and strange it seems to many he doesn't eat the goods he sells, to gain an honest penny. He has his window filled with fruits that came from distant regions, from countries where the warthog roots, and jaguars roam in legions. The treasures of some far-off clime — no royal store could beat them! And still I wonder, all the time, just why he doesn't eat them. With dates from Araby the blest, and figs from Asia Minor, the smiling grocer does his best to please the western diner. Imported things upon his shelf, spaghetti, cheese and noodle; if I were he, I would, myself, consume the whole caboodle! The grocer reaches south and north and east and west he reaches, for all the eatables of worth, the canteloupes and peaches; the new potatoes and the peas, the condiments and sauces, the Chinese eggs and sweitzer cheese, which oft are total losses. I'd hate to sell such tempting things; if patrons came, I'd greet them, and say, "They're not for sale, by jings, for I intend to eat them!"

MAN SUSPECTED IN KATY ROBBERY HELD

Prisoner Alleged to Have Been Planning Second Crime.

Beardstown, Ill., July 17.—A man, alleged to have admitted that he is one of the bandits who held up the Katy flyer near Matson, Mo., and cracked the safe in the express car, last Thursday night, is under arrest in Beardstown on a charge of carrying concealed weapons.

The suspect first made his appearance here Saturday morning, when he "fell in" with Charles Finnegan of Virginia, Ill.

Finnegan told of meeting the man in a saloon and of the latter's invitation to assist him in holding up a residence. The robbery was planned for Saturday night, but was not "pulled off," he said.

Finnegan declared also that the man told him of holding up the Katy flyer and of escaping in a skiff.

A few hours later the suspect was arrested by a special officer for the Burlington railroad and a patrolman.

The officers went to a place in a lumber yard designated in Finnegan's story, in which the suspect is alleged to have said he had disguised concealed, and found an automatic revolver and cartridges wrapped in a suit of overalls. A dark slouch hat such as were worn by the Katy bandits was found in the package.

The suspect refused to explain his presence in Beardstown, and refused to talk about the Katy holdup.

Ladies, when you are out of engraved calling cards, bring your plate to The Evening Telegraph office and we will furnish you cards on short notice.

CARPENTIER WILLING TO MEET SMITH AGAIN

HEAVYWEIGHTS MAY FIGHT IN DECEMBER—WINNER
TO TAKE ALL.

(Associated Press.)

London, July 17.—Georges Carpentier, who last night won the white heavyweight championship from Ed. (Gumbo) Smith on a foul in the sixth round of their battle here, says he is willing to meet Smith after his music hall engagements are filled, which will be in December. He says he will accept Smith's offer that the winner take the entire purse providing Smith will make a side bet of $20,000. Smith, who has no theatrical engagements, asserts that he is not playing to the galleries.

HARVEY CASE TOMORROW

James Harvey will be given a preliminary hearing tomorrow in Magistrate Kent's court on a charge of assault and battery preferred by the friends of Mrs. Gabana, a foreign woman, at the time of her arrest on the charge of the illegal sale of liquor.

Hugh Bradley of South Dixon shopped here today.

MAN WANTED FOR WIFE DESERTION

Vandewall and his bride came here in May. They furnished a comfortable little home and both were happy, when the groom, so it is stated, learned that he was being sought and fearing something, which the local officials believe was arrest, he left.

Agreed on Secret ode.

After leaving her, Nass adopted the name of Vandewall and it was under this name that he has registered at various hotels in northern Illinois, being employed as a traveling salesman. Writing his wife at the address of his former home here, Nass' letters were intercepted by the owner of the place, who opened the mail because of the serious illness of the wife. In one of these letters Nass or Vandewall wrote in substance: "I will call you up and will say: Is this 169; in this way you will know who is talking." Nass' wife was too ill to be informed of the contents of this letter and if the call over the telephone came it reached unsympathetic ears.

Miss Jessie Entrikin, secretary of the local Associated Charities, learning of the most important features of the sad plight of the couple, secured a complaint against the husband and father on the charge of wife abandonment. The warrant was left at the sheriff's office, but no service has ever been secured. It was made out June 27th, and since that time the husband has not been seen in Freeport. His wife was taken to Milwaukee July 5th and is still confined to her bed, so it is said.

Nass, so it is said, has been in straightened financial circumstances and left Freeport owing two months' house rent. His wife's hospital bill was also paid by another uncle living in Milwaukee.

Local officials are much interested in the outcome of the case, their sympathies having been aroused because of the condition of the mother, who is said to be but twenty years old. Nass is older and is well-known to the traveling public in northern Illinois.

MRS. RECTOR PASSED AWAY THIS MORNING

BELOVED WOMAN DIED AT 9:45 O'CLOCK—FUNERAL SUN-DAY AFTERNOON.

Mrs. Belinda Flick Rector died this morning at 9:45 o'clock at her home on East First street.

Mrs. Rector has been ill since March, a patient sufferer, always hopeful. Her passing is a severe sorrow to all her friends. Mrs. Rector leaves to mourn her loss, one son, E. A. Tayman, who has given his time and loving care to his mother during her last illness. She also leaves one brother, Solomon Flick, of Somerset, Pa.

Belinda Flick was born Sept. 5, 1839, in Somerset county, Pa., where she spent most of her early life, coming to Dixon in March, 1886.

The funeral will be held at the home, 310 E. First street, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. F. D. Altman officiating. Burial at Oakwood cemetery.

Oh, yes! We have plenty of the white paper for the picnic supper table. Just the thing if you are going to Lowell Park or the woods for an outing or picnic.

BRYAN IN FAVOR OF WOMAN SUFFRAGE

SECRETARY OF STATE SAYS WOMAN CAN BE TRUSTED WITH BALLOT.

HAS PROVEN HERSELF EQUAL

Will Take an Active Part in the Suffrage Campaign Being Waged in Nebraska

Washington, July 15.—Secretary Bryan, in a formal statement issued tonight came out for woman suffrage. He declared that he would ask no political right for himself that he was not willing to grant his wife, and announced his intention of supporting the proposed state constitutional amendment extending the franchise to women to be voted upon in Nebraska in November.

Woman, Mr. Bryan said, had proved herself equal to every responsibility imposed upon her, and would not fail society in this emergency. Above all other arguments in favor of giving her the ballot he placed the right of the mother to a voice in the moulding of the environment of her children. "The mother," the secretary said "can justly claim the right to employ every weapon which can be made effective for the protection of those whose interests she guards and the ballot will put within reach all of the instrumentalities of government, including the police power."

"If she is a widow there is no one who is in a position to speak for her in this matter of supreme importance. If her husband is living she can supplement his influence if they agree as to what is best for those under their joint care; if they do not agree, who will say that only the father should be consulted?"

"For a time I was impressed by the suggestion that the question should be left to the women to decide—a majority to determine whether the franchise should be extended to women, but I find myself I was less and less disposed to endorse this test. Samuel Johnson coined the epigram which is in point here, namely, that 'No man's conscience can tell him the right of another man.' Responsibility for the child's welfare rests primarily upon the parent; the parent receives in the largest measure the blessings that flow from the child's life, if that life is nobly employed; and upon the parent falls the blow with severest force if the child's life is misspent. Why should any mother, therefore, be denied the use of the franchise to safeguard the welfare of her child merely because another mother may not view her duty in precisely the same light?"

"Politics will not suffer because of woman's interference in it. If the political world has grown more pure in spite of the evil influences that have operated to debauch it, it will not be polluted by the presence and participation of woman. Neither should we doubt that woman can be trusted with the ballot. She has proven herself equal to every responsibility imposed upon her; she will not fail society in this emergency. Let her vote, and may that discernment which has, throughout the ages ever enabled her to quickly grasp great truths—made her 'the last at the cross and the first at the sepulchre'—so direct her in the discharge of her political duties as to add new glories to her and through her still bless civilized society."

(Associated Press.)

Chicago, July 17.—The coroner's jury which will investigate the killing of Detective Birns, who was shot in a revolver battle in the levee district last night, will be composed of high school principals, according to Coroner Hoffman. In the battle, which is said to have been precipitated by levee characters, Birns' partner, John Sloop, and two detectives belonging to the "morals squad" were wounded. "It appears that two bodies of detectives did not recognize each other in the confusion which led to the shooting," said the coroner.

CARRANZA WILL BE RECOGNIZED

President Wilson and Secretary Bryan after the viewpoint of the South American mediators was laid before them.

Under the terms of a protocol signed at Niagara Falls the United States, Argentina, Brazil and Chile went on record promising recognition to the government set up by any agreement between the two Mexican factions. To vitalize that protocol the Washington government and the mediators are bending their efforts.

May Call American Troops.

Vera Cruz, Mexico, July 17.—From Mexican sources it is reported here that at its meeting the chamber of deputies discussed the probable effect of inviting American troops to come to the capital to assist in maintaining order during the period of change and reorganization in the government. Octavio Campero, confidential agent of Carranza in Vera Cruz, asserts that a new revolution is brewing in the state of Oaxaca, 200 miles south of Mexico City. Huerta, he says, has stored large quantities of arms at Ypiranga, in the mountains of Oaxaca, and plans to hasten there. The elevation of Felix Diaz to the presidency is supposed to be the object of this revolutionary movement.

Huerta at Puerto Mexico.

Vera Cruz, Mexico, July 17.—The special train said to be conveying General Huerta and General Blanquet from Mexico City passed through Cordoba on its way to Puerto Mexico, according to Lieutenant Colonel Izunza, commander of the Mexican federal outposts. The train, it was understood, was to reach Orizaba between 5 and 6 o'clock this morning.

Counter Diaz Revolution.

San Antonio, Tex., July 17.—Reports that a junta was being formed in El Paso in the interests of Felix Diaz were being discussed unofficially by army officers here. The plan, it was said, was to start a counter revolution against Carranza and Villa and secure aid of Huerta irregulars.

URIC ACID IN MEAT
CLOGS THE KIDNEYS

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you—Drink more water.

If you must have your meat every day,
eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush out of the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here.
Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys,
also to neutralize the acids in urine,
so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

THE REPRISAL

By GLADYS HALL.

(Copyright)
I have had my death sentence.
There can be no reprieve, no court of higher appeal, no leniency. But before I go I shall tell the world that love may not be toyed with, that primordial man
still lives.

Now that the veil of all illusions, all earthly conceits, is to be rent asunder, I shall write the truth, naked and
unashamed.

There came into my life about my twentieth year a man who came nearer to mastering me than anyone I had ever met, and on this man I exercised, successfully,
every wile in my power.

For a year I played with him, devoting to him all of my time and attention and devotion—apparently. He grew mad as the days went by—mad with the terrible passion of a strong man's love.

As a cat toys with a helpless mouse,
I revealed in his torture, in his ecstatic pain; finally—I sent him away.

Another man crossed my path, and I was weary of the one game. He was not easy to send, this man who cared so frightfully—I think I shall never forget his face when I said the words.

I have seen a great many mangled hearts, torn by this white hand they are so eager to seize; but this man's very soul lay crushed—and in his eyes was a hell of despair—but he never said a word.

Fifteen years had nearly elapsed,
and he had become little more than a memory when, in the hotel dining-room, two weeks ago, I saw him.

Something, I can't say what, made me raise my eyes, and I gazed full into his eyes gazing back at me. They were sunken eyes with two things in them—a dead thing, the soul I had killed, and a look that seemed to say aloud, "Repay, repay."

He did not look my way again; I can't imagine why, for the beauty of twenty has increased sevenfold, and I was sheathed in clinging, filmy gray, with a red rose in my breast.

As he finished he rose very slowly,
and deliberately crossed to my table.
"How do you do?" he said simply,
his lips smiling, but his eyes tragedy-filled as before.

"This is a surprise, indeed," I told him with as easy a manner as I could command. I had met, in later years, many of the men whose hearts I had played with, some sunk into the mire, some broken, some reckless cynics,
but none had looked as this man looked, or held in their eyes that dead thing—Oh, God, I can see it now!

His next words filled me with amazement, that yet was not rid of a haunting fear, as he said lightly:

"I'm so glad to find you here; I feared it might be dull, but you will take pity on a lonely man and let me renew our acquaintance a bit, will you not?"

Something said "Yes"—it wasn't me; and something whispered, too, that flight would be unavailing—that this man's hour had struck—that he was master now.

The days that followed—they were like no other days I had ever spent.
He was my constant companion; we rode and drove, attended the opera and theater, lunched and dined, and always he was courteous, attentive, kind
—always he was the master.

Oh, of course, he never proved his dominance; but often in this life up-spoken words are more potent than those uttered, and unused mastery more powerfully felt than that of outward sign.

One night a week ago we took a walk, and here I must say that a strange thing had come into my life—
a something hitherto wholly alien to heart and mind.

It was a half-formulated, half-vague wonder what life might have been as a wife and mother—perhaps.

It had curiously softened me this night as we started out toward the lake; I felt a new sense of harmony, of well-being, and I even knew a throbb-ing of pity for him, instead of the previous cold fear.

As we drew near the wooded path
that circles the lake I felt, instinctively, a sudden change in the man at my side, a new intensity and force;
and then, without warning, I was in his arms—crushed close in a mad frenzy—while on eyes and hair and lips and throat rained the wild, terrible kisses of a famished man.

"Oh, God!" I heard him sob, "Ah, God—at last!"

As abruptly he changed again, stepped back, and, after a few seconds to master himself, he said slowly and with a sardonic smile worthy of Satan:

"Mme. La Vampire, I am through—my task is accomplished—and you are mine forever. I bid you a very good night."

Shaking with hysteria, I groped my way back to the hotel.

That was a week ago; night before last I consulted a physician; I was badly racked and feverish, and my red lips were cracked and white.

I feared for my beauty—but why tell it all? I am in my room, cringing and cursing—and tomorrow they take us away—together—on a ship, a very exclusive ship—we are lepers!

BUILDING*LAND VALUES ARE INCREASED

English Country Residents Enjoy Good Roads and Are Ever Within Reach of Good Markets.

In England the highest ambition of a majority of well-to-do men is to have a "place" in the country. They don't hanker after city living the year around; indeed, they don't hanker after it at all, except as it may be forced upon them in order that they may live near their business. But the minute their business reaches such a point as to afford them some leisure, or the minute they acquire sufficient means to retire, they seek a home in the country. England has good roads, though in very early times none were worse, and these country residents are never beyond the reach of good markets and of the supplies which good markets offer. A country house ten miles from a market town, but connected with it
by a good road—a road good at all seasons and in all weathers—isn't really so difficult of access as some country

An English Country Road.

houses within a mile of some of our city limits.

Has it ever occurred to landholders in some of our own towns that good roads to their lands would not only bring those lands nearer the markets they raise produce for, but would also bring those lands nearer the city where business men do business, make them more available for residence and increase their value? No man wants to travel two or more miles every day to and from the city where his business is located over such "roads" as we have found existing in various parts of the country. No wonder the "state road" system has become so popular. But many men would be glad to drive their buggy or auto five or even more miles every day if the roads offered them were such that the drive was a daily pleasure and did not put them at an unreasonable distance from their offices in point of time.

OPERATION OF A ROAD DRAG

Some Simple Lessons Given by Man Who Learned by Years of Experience—Helper Is Needed.

Here are some simple lessons, worth considering, which I have learned by years of experience with the road drag, writes John K. Goodman in Progressive Farmer.

1. Make your drag reversible (i. e., to move dirt right or left) by altering the hitch. Have the hind section about five-sixths the length of the front one; and face both front and rear sections entire length with iron or steel.

2. For best results under varying conditions of road surface as to dry, damp, hard or soft, I find it pays to have a man along at the end of a rope attached to the rear end of drag to properly steer the machine, and counteract its tendency to slide around hard bumps which need trimming off and smoothing. It is not so easy a matter as talking about it, for one man (the driver) to rightly direct the course and work of the drag by stepping from point to point, as common directions go; in fact, oftentimes impossible. Then the driver's weight is not always needed on the drag, but can be there in an instant when required.

Poor Highways.

Poor highways lessen the profit of labor, increase the cost of living, burden the enterprise of the people, dull the morality of our citizenship and hold down the educational advancement of the country.

Add to Selling Price.
Good roads in your vicinity add to the selling price of the products of your farm.

Marks of Plymouth Rocks.
Originally, the Barred Rock, oldest of the Plymouth Rocks by many years, had five toes, but now these never appear. Originally, in the old flocks one would appear now and then showing feathers on the legs of the then best pure-bred. Should this happen today, one would discard it immediately as far from pure-bred.

Miss Della Preston was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Robert DePuy, Thursday.

There will be no evening service at the church until after the assembly.

The W. H. and F. M. society met with Mrs. Frank Coleman last Thursday. A very interesting program was prepared and a very pleasant afternoon was spent.

Sunday morning, July 19, a representative from the Anti-Saloon league will be present and present his work. A very cordial invitation is extended to everyone to be present Sunday morning, July 26.

We strongly recommend the heavy cloth binding,
as it is a beautiful book that will last forever.

In this volume are all the old favorites, bound together in one beautiful volume; printed in large, readable type; the music so clear and large that it can be easily read from a distance where several persons are standing around the accompanist; and every song in this collection is a recognized popular melody. In this book there are no one-line chantys;
no ancient roundelays; no excerpts from wornout musical comedies; no trash; but every song of love and home; every sentimental and college song that you love; every patriotic and sacred song that is dear to your memory; and all the old masterpieces from the grand opera.

7 SONG BOOKS IN ONE

DAIRY
GIVE COWS FEED REGULARLY
Of Great Importance That Strict Regularity Be Observed in Both Feeding and Milking.
(By T. L. HAECKER, Dairy and Animal Husbandman, University Farm, St. Paul, Minn.)
It is of great importance that strict regularity should be observed, both in feeding and in milking, in order to secure the greatest degree of contentment in the herd. If cows are fed at stated intervals, they will not worry for food until the time for feeding arrives. If it is then given to them in proper quantity, they will eat and lie down, chew the cud and sleep or rest contentedly until time for another feed. First give the grain mixture, and milk the cows while they are eating it. This routine is recommended because, with some cows, the milk comes more freely while they are eating that portion of their ration which has the most relish. Cured roughage should be fed after milking because it fills the air in the barn with dust. Succulent feed, like silage and roots, should also be fed after milking, because of the odor that it gives. Feeding twice a day will bring better returns than more frequent and wasteful feeding. Give half the concentrates and half the roughage in the morning, and half in the evening. Cows will soon become accustomed to this routine. In the winter they should be allowed to spend the day in the stall, and for two or three hours about midday they should not be disturbed. Turning them out into the yard, or giving them access to a straw-stack or field of corn stalks, will cause them to shrink in milk, no matter how much or how well they may be fed in the morning and evening. No more feed should be given them than they will eat up. The managers should be absolutely clean and free from any feed, during the day and night.
KEEPING BUTTER IN SUMMER
Wooden Box Lowered into Well by Means of Pulley Serves to Keep Dairy Products Cool.
We always have nice, sweet cream and good, firm butter in hot weather by keeping it in a box in the well, writes J. A. McKinney of Lafontaine, Kan., in Farmers' Mail and Breze. For a well with water at a depth of 20 feet, take two pieces of 2 by 4-inch timber 26 feet long, and spike a 2 by 4-inch piece, 30 inches long to each end. This makes the frame. Put the frame in the well to one side, letting it extend through an opening in the platform, a few feet higher than the curbing. Make a cupboard or box out of light lumber just wide enough to slip easily up and down in the frame, and long enough to hold two or three shelves. Attach a rope to the box and bring it over a well pulley hung to the frame above and then to the windlass. I also have a second pulley (not shown in the drawing) on top of the frame, with a small wire cable running over it. One end is fastened to the box and a heavy iron weight is suspended from the other which hangs down the well. With this device a child can raise the loaded elevator with ease.

Importance of Healthy Kidneys
Dixon Readers Should Learn to Keep the Kidneys Well.
The kidneys have a big work to do. All the blood in the body is coursing through the kidneys constantly to be freed of poisonous matter. It is a heavy enough task when the kidneys are well, but a cold, chill, fever or some thoughtless exposure is likely to irritate, inflame and congest the kidneys and interrupt the purifying work.
Then the aching frequently begins and is often accompanied by some irregularity of the urine—too frequent passages, sediment or retention. Thousands testify to the wonderful merit of Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy that has been used in kidney troubles 50 years. You will make no mistake in following this Dixon citizen's advice.
Miss Della McGrail, 503 College Ave., Dixon, says: "I do not hesitate to publicly endorse Doan's Kidney Pills, for I found them to be just as good as represented. My kidneys were out of order and I had pains through my back and sides. I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and used them. They gave me a permanent cure."
Miss McGrail is only one of many Dixon people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask definitely for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Miss McGrail had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c, all Buffalo, N. TRYING SEASONS FOR COWS Something Required to Take Place of Pastures During Latter Part of Summer and Early Fall.
One of the most trying seasons of the year for the dairy cow is the latter part of the summer and early fall. At this season the pastures are often short or dried up, and in such cases it is a common mistake of dairymen to let their cows drop off in flow of milk through lack of feed. Later they find it impossible to restore the milk flow, no matter how the cows are fed. Good dairy practice demands that the milk flow be maintained at a high level all the time from parturition to drying off. It becomes necessary, therefore, to supply some feed to take the place of the grass. The easiest way to do this is by means of silage. Silage is cheaper and decidedly more convenient to use than soiling crops.
The amount of feed will depend upon the condition of the pastures, varying all the way from ten pounds to a full winter feed of 40 pounds. It should be remembered in this connection that silage contains a low percentage of protein, so that the greater the amount of silage fed the greater must be the amount of protein in the supplementary feeds to balance the ration.

THAW WINS $160,000 INCOME

Succeeds in Six-Months' Fight for Share of Father's Estate.

Pittsburgh, Pa., July 17.—After six months of legal battle, Harry K. Thaw, in a decision handed down by Judge James W. Over in orphans' court, is awarded the income of $160,773 from his father's estate. Judge Over says Thaw is legally entitled to the money despite the fact that alienists declare Thaw is suffering from an exaggerated sense of self which would make it unwise to commit any large sums of money into his personal charge.

NOT LOST ON THE EMPRESS

Supposed Woman Victim, Mother of Four, Arrested With Man.

Ontario, Cal., July 17.—Mrs. Hattie Willets, who was believed to have been lost in the Empress of Ireland disaster in the St. Lawrence river, leaving a husband and four children in Toronto, Canada, was arrested here in company with E. A. Hensen and H. R. Horn, also of Toronto.

The men were held on the charge of bringing Mrs. Willets here from Canada and will be detained until it is known whether a charge of violating the Mann act will be placed against them.

MRS. CARMAN IS VOTED TRUE BILL

Doctor's Wife Is Charged with First Degree Manslaughter.

ADMISSION TO BAIL IS ASKED

Jury in Trial Could Find Her Guilty of Second Degree Manslaughter—She Probably Will Be Released Today—District Attorney's Office Makes Proposal for Plea of Guilty.

Freeport, L. I., July 17.—Mrs. Florence Carman was indicted for manslaughter in the first degree by the Nassau county grand jury, sitting at Mineola. The jury reached a decision after two hours' deliberations. The original plan was to present the indictment in the afternoon, but after a telephone conversation with Supreme Court Justice Van Sicken at Jamaica, it was learned that he could not reach Mineola to receive the jury's findings Thursday, so the formal presentation was not made until 1 o'clock today.

Mrs. Carman was arraigned immediately afterward and plead not guilty. Her trial was fixed for the September sitting of the supreme court at Mineola. Her counsel straightway asked for her liberty under bail.

Manslaughter in the first degree is punishable by imprisonment for a term of not exceeding twenty years. It will be possible, however, for the jury that tries her to bring in a verdict of manslaughter in the second degree. Such a crime is punishable by imprisonment for a term not exceeding fifteen years or a fine not exceeding $1,000.

As soon as Dr. Carman had been reasonably assured that his wife had been indicted he began to arrange for bail.

Plea of Guilty Suggested.

There was an effort made to get Mrs. Carman to plead guilty on the theory that if she will relate the entire story of her family difference the jury would release her. Certain scraps of conversation have even come from the district attorney's office that the same opinion is held there. But to such proposals Mrs. Carman has so far shown no signs of agreeing. Dr. Carman takes the same attitude. He says that he has been approached by friends and informed that the district attorney's office is not only agreeable to such a course but that assurance has been given that Mrs. Carman might thus gain her liberty.
